Creation-Savings Time

The two most important weeks in the life of God and us are the week of creation and Holy Week. They are parallel weeks of creation. It was on the first Sunday of the world that God saw the chaos and said, "Let there be light." It was on the first Sunday of the re-creation of the world that Jesus rode into the spiritual chaos of Jerusalem.

"And there was evening, and there was morning, the first day," the Bible says. In the Old Testament the day begins at sundown. The day begins with darkness, just like the universe began with darkness before God created light. So, every sunrise reenacts the first work of creation. On the first day of Holy Week, Jesus rides into Jerusalem to confront the spiritual darkness. The re-creation of the sunrise has begun.

On the last day of God's work in creation, God made human beings, male and female. He made them in his own image. "God saw everything that he had made, and indeed, it was very good. And there was evening, and there was morning, the sixth day." On the seventh day, God rested.

Good Friday is the sixth day of Holy Week. The sun was setting as Jesus died on the cross. The religious leaders didn't want him on the cross when the sun went down because that was the beginning of the Sabbath. So they had the Roman soldiers make sure he was dead by piercing his side with a lance. He was dead. The work of recreation was done. Joseph of Arimathea took his body and laid it in his own family tomb. So it was that God rested again from his labors on the seventh day.

When the sun went down on the seventh day, the day we call Saturday, the day the Spanish-speaking call Sabado (from the word Sabbath), God set the clock forward. Just the way we set the clock forward when we go to bed the Saturday night before daylight-saving time, God set the clock forward the night following the Sabbath. Never again would the day begin with the dark, but rather with the light. The Lord's Day had moved from the end of the week to the beginning of the week, from Saturday to Sunday, from Sabado to Domingo, from the day of rest to the day of God. Since then, we have been living on Creation-Savings Time.

Every Sunday is a celebration of the resurrection of Jesus, the recognition that we now live on Creation-Savings Time, but Easter is the one time in the year where the celebration follows a week's reenactment of the work God did to put us on Creation-Savings Time.

Spiritual Connections is a youth-mentoring project of the faith-based Sacred Pathways Inc. in Robeson County, NC, that provides food and other basic needs to low-income people. While its roots are among the Lumbee people, the project is racially diverse, like the county it serves.

Supported by United Methodists through the Native American Ministries Sunday offering, Sacred Pathways counsels and nurtures young people, teaching them to work cross-culturally to improve their lives and their communities. That includes seeking answers to widespread poverty and decreasing numbers of school dropouts, teen pregnancies and gangs. Members of the interracial Youth Leadership Cabinet, drawn from area high schools, learn critical thinking skills, team building, self-esteem and personal goal setting. They also learn to respond creatively to concerns such as saving the environment and fighting global hunger and homelessness.

"This program taught me so much that I will take with me wherever I go," says Lauren Oxendine, 19, who made new friends and discovered a passion for community service as a cabinet member. "I want to broaden my horizons, share my culture and all that I've learned, and try to show people there can be a better life for everybody."

Your gifts on Native American Ministries Sunday fund ministries that pave the way for those who aspire to serve Christ's church by making disciples of Jesus Christ for the transformation of the world. Because of your generosity, young people like Lauren discover a world worth saving, congregations become stronger, seminarians prepare to serve and communities are transformed.

UMC Quiz

1. "Hymn for Easter Day," written in 1739 for the inaugural service at the Foundry Meeting House, London's first Wesleyan chapel, by Charles Wesley is better known to us today by what title?
2. Where does the term "Good Friday" come from?
3. The three days, starting at sunset on Maundy Thursday and continuing through to sunset on Easter Sunday, are traditionally known by what term?

The UMW met at the church in March with ten in attendance. Devotional readings were provided by Peggy Garner and Jean Myrick. Cytha Peters spoke about this month's prayer focus, The Women's Opportunity Fund.

The program was provided by Jennifer Aguilar who shared with us the work being done by the National Missions Institution which is supported by the UMW units around the country. One setting is in our area, the Alpine Community Center, which is doing some exciting work in west Texas. We also learned that the pastor in Alpine, the Rev. Jane (Golden) Vaughan is a McCamey High School alumnae.

Following the program, Louise Carll provided the refreshments, a home-made pecan pie. It was delicious!

Next meeting: April 9th at the church in McCamey.

The March UMM meeting took place on Monday, March 5th.

Pastor Charles continued our discussion of Jacob from Bad Boys of the Bible.

The April meeting will be on the 2nd at 6:00 p.m. in the church fellowship hall. We'll be looking at the second half of the story Jephthah in the Book of the Judges, chapters eleven and twelve.

Please join us!

OUTREACH MINISTRIES

Every other month, copies of The Upper Room devotional booklets are made available in both churches. These come to us in large print and regular print versions.

Sadly, many copies of this wonderful resource are thrown away each month, never leaving the church building with no one to benefit from this ministry.

Please take one copy for yourself and another to share with a friend, relative or neighbor. It just might be the lifeline they have been longing for.

THE UPPER ROOM®

YOUR PLACE TO MEET GOD

The lunch for the Iraan High school senior class, hosted by the First UMC-Iraan, is scheduled for May 2nd.

In May, we'll have our annual ice cream social at a date to be announced.

Glen Smart has arranged a donation box at supermarket in McCamey for the community to make contributions to the Food Pantry at First Baptist Church.

Please remember to shop local whenever possible and to support this worth-while ministry which is being sponsored by the McCamey Ministerial Alliance.

The communion rail offering at the First UMC in McCamey this month will go in support of the Native American Ministries Sunday.

UMC Quiz Answers:

1. We know the hymn as "Christ the Lord Is Risen Today," (UMC Hymnal, #302) composed by the most famous hymn writer of all, Charles Wesley, one year after his conversion.
2. The source of our term for the Friday before Easter, "Good Friday," is not clear. It may be a corruption of the English phrase "God's Friday," according to Dr. Laurence Hull Stookey (a professor of Pastor Charles' at Wesley Theological Seminary) in Calendar: Christ's Time for the Church (p. 96). For more on Good Friday, please see this link.
3. The Paschal Triduum often called the Easter Triduum or simply the Triduum, begins during Holy Week, and consists of Holy Thursday, Good Friday, Holy Saturday, and Easter Sunday.
